Sir

I respectfully beg to state that since I took charge of the School here I invariably found the School Sweeper Malek not doing his duty though the same was defined and explained to him and though he was fined once and warned several times The School houses here - English - Kanarese and Hindustanee - were, - instead of being kept clean, left with Sweepings all over the floors I have herein Enclosed the ongoing report of the Kanarese School masters who state that they greatly feel the want of a peon for the Kanarese School Without entering into the propriety or otherwise of their want especially when it is known that all the Kanarese School work is being carried out from a long time without a peon, I beg to state that I see no reason why the Sweeper should not have swept the Kanarese and Hondustani branches of the School - Inasmuchas I told him to do the same Under these circumstances, I should have liked to employ a better man and therefore I beg to inform you that the sweeper's resig=

The Director of Public Instruction

Sir

I have the honor to inform you that the Engineering students of this College have recently gone through their half course examination

These students joined the School in January 1874 and completed their half course at the end of July last

Their half course examination was however postponed for a short time, with the sanction of the Director of Public Instruction in Consequence of the sickness of the four men

The subjects of examination with the marks gained by each are given in the annexed table, Ramya Row still heads the list although very closely pressed by Seetaramia Row The whole of the students have gained the prescribed minimum of marks, viz one third according to the precedent of the final Course examination of the first set of students, which took place, December 1876

None of the answering was consequently good Thus I attribute to the fact that Ramya Row had been dangerously ill for nearly a month before the Examination Kalrain Row had been sick for two months and to Seetaram Row who above attended regularly I could not give the full benefit of lectures as when the other men returned, he lost a good deal of the benefit of lectures

I had to recapitulate a good deal for their instruction much of going regularly on with the Course

A quarterly Examination has also been held of the Lower department The results are given in the accompanying table

In the Lower Department Senior class Ananda Row who passed such bad examinations last year has shown that he has exerted himself to the utmost during the last quarter He is fourth on the list in total results He is active and intelligent and does better at work than at his examinations Mathematical

In the Lower Department
Junior Class Nayakkan is [redacted] head of all his class [redacted] He passed a creditable examination

All offices in the Mysore Commission are supplied with office boxes as far as undersigned is aware. The want of one is likely to lead to the loss of papers

When undersigned took charge of the School he made use of his private Chubb's box to keep official papers. Circumstances prevent the continuation of this procedure

A good deal of the work of undersigned (preparing lectures, looking over examination papers &c) is done at his private residence and an office box is needed for the safe conveyance of documents to & from the School.
